THE HUMBLE PETITION OF MRS. GLORIA ASSAN ARHIN SHEWETH THAT:

1. That the Petitioner, formerly a spinster, was lawfully married to the Respondent under customary law and subsequently the couple converted the customary marriage into marriage under the MARRIAGES ACT, 1884-1985 CAP. 127 in or about the year 2012.

7. That in the early parts of the marriage, the parties faced financial challenges in the marriage so the Petitioner who was at the time the highest earner for the family, in addition to her employment with Charterhouse, traded in baby diapers and wipes as well as running event organization among others to be able to mobilize enough funds for the maintenance and management of the home and continued doing these jobs until somewhere in 2016 when Respondent asked Petitioner to quit the jobs, stay home and take care of the then only child of the family while expecting the second child.
8. The Respondent who was at the time of the marriage a research assistant with the Danquah Institute (D.I) and the press secretary to the then opposition leader (now president of Ghana) was upon the change of government appointed as the Director of Communications at the office of the President of the Republic of Ghana and has been in that position for the past four (4) years.
9. The Respondent shortly after his appointment as the Director of Communications started behaving in very unusual ways towards the Petitioner and the Children and continued on this path until the relationship between the parties deteriorated completely.
10. The marriage between the parties has for the past about four (4) years suffered irreparable damage and setbacks and all the efforts by the Parties and their families at amicable resolution have all failed.
11. The Respondent has on several occasions unequivocally informed the Petitioner that he is no longer interested in the marriage.
12. The Respondent has in addition to his clear indication of disinterest in the marriage moved out of the Parties residence (leaving the Petitioner and the children alone) and till date, the Petitioner has no knowledge of where the Respondent resides.
